10 v.) ORDER DIRECTING CLERK TO
11 OFFICER BURACH, et al.,) RE-SEND ORDER TO PLAINTIFF
12 Defendants.)
13 _____)

14 On December 7, 2009, this Court issued an Order directing plaintiff to show cause why 15 this action should not be dismissed for failure to prosecute. (Dkt. 137.) The Court directed that 16 plaintiff respond to the Order not later than December 28, 2009, and directed the Clerk to send 17 a copy of the Order to plaintiff at the Washington Corrections Center. (Id.) A review of the 18 record suggests that the Order was not mailed to plaintiff at the Washington Corrections Center
19 as directed, but was instead mailed to plaintiff at his address of record, the King County Jail.
20 (See Dkt. 138.)

21 As it appears, plaintiff never received a copy of the Court's Order to Show Cause, the 22 Court does hereby Order as follows:

(1) The Clerk shall re-send the December 7, 2009, Order to Show Cause to plaintiff at the Washington Corrections Center. The Clerk should note that plaintiff's Washington Department of Corrections number is 299085 and should include that number on the mail directed to plaintiff.

(2) Plaintiff is directed to respond to the Order to Show Cause not later than thirty (30) days from the date on which this Order is signed. Plaintiff is advised that his failure to timely respond to this Order to Show Cause will result in a recommendation that this action be dismissed for failure to prosecute.

(3) The Clerk of Court is directed to send copies of this Order to counsel for defendants and to the Honorable James L. Robart.

DATED this 26th day of January, 2010.
